

Appellate Practice 101

The Basics of Litigating an Appeal

Co-sponsored by the Colorado Bar Association Litigation Section

Join us to enhance your appellate know-how. Learn the whens, wheres, and hows of litigating an appeal from knowledgeable, engaging, and highly experienced appellate practitioners in a time efficient, half-day program. The presentation will include best practices, pitfalls, persuasive techniques, and strategic considerations.

MEET YOUR PRESENTERS:

Kendra N. Beckwith, Esq., Partner, Messner Reeves, focuses on appellate and complex litigation. She routinely represents clients before the Colorado Court of Appeals, Colorado Supreme Court, Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, and federal and state appellate courts nationwide. Her practice covers a broad variety of subject matters, including professional liability, negligence and personal injury, employment, insurance law, real estate, natural resources, commercial litigation, and class and collective actions.

Kyle W. Brenton, Esq., is an Assistant United States Attorney in the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Colorado. Before joining the Justice Department, he was Of Counsel at Childs McCune, LLC, where he headed the firm's appellate practice, and before that was a longtime member of the appellate practice group at Davis Graham & Stubbs, LLP. He has briefed and argued appeals in the Colorado state appellate courts and the Tenth and Eighth Circuits.
