

CONTENTS

I: HOW IT ALL BEGAN

Introduction	3
A Diamond Anniversary: Tenth Circuit Formed and Robert E. Lewis Becomes First Chief Judge	9
A Herculean Task: Benjamin F. Hall Organizes the Colorado Territorial Courts	13
The Early History of the Colorado Court of Appeals	17
From Dyer's Case to Hard Bargains: Six Centuries of Covenants Not to Compete	35

II: RACE RELATIONS

Introduction	51
Race, Murder and Criminal Prosecution in Wartime Denver	57
Turbulence a Mile High: Equal Employment Opportunity in the Colorado Sky	61
“An Immoral Course of Life”: Vagrancy Conviction for Interracial Marriage	65

III: “THAT OLD TIME RELIGION”

Introduction	71
Bah Humbug! Colorado Law and the Winter Holidays	75
“Last Night was the End of the World”: Prohibition in Colorado	79
The Limits of Tolerance: Alma White and the Pentecostal Union Crusade	83
The Divinely Scientific Edward C. Smith: Prosecution of a Healer for Hire	87
Liquor and Dynamite: A One-Man Vice Crusade Yields Explosive Results	93

IV: MURDER MOST FOUL

Introduction	99
Law, Order, and Municipal Authority in Colorado’s Early Mining Towns	103
Heat of Passion: A Murder on the Streets of Leadville	107
A Case of Gift Causa Mortis and the Dead Man’s Statute	111
However Improbable His Story: A Controversial Case of Self-Defense	121
Corpus Delicti : Three Unusual Colorado Cases	127
“A Fine Old Whiskey”: The Murder-by-Mail Slaying of Josephine A. Barnaby	143

V: OUR FELLOW CREATURES

Introduction	165
The Docked Horse’s Tail: Cruelty and the Commerce Clause	169
When Doves Died: A Case of Animal Cruelty in El Paso County	173

VI: POLITICS AS USUAL

Introduction	181
Law and Equity in Colorado's 19th Century Suffrage Movement	185
Of Roosters and Eagles: Colorado's Voting Emblem Cases	189
Official Misconduct: Wolfe Londoner and the Denver Mayoral Election of 1889	193
Divorce by Jury: Governor Gilpin's Matrimonial Ordeal	203
The House Un-American Activities Committee Visits Denver: A Crossfire of Accusations	213

VII: PLIGHT OF THE WORKING MAN

Introduction	227
Charles H. Moyer: Martial Law and the Great Writ	231
Smeltersmen Dealt a Blow: A Lochner -Era Case Tosses the Eight-Hour Workday	235
"In Hell or Aspen by Christmas": A Railway Accident and Its Aftermath	241
"I'd Rob Him and Skip": Digging for Gold in an Old Miner's Heart	249

VIII: WATER FOR AN ARID LAND

Introduction	261
Raging Waters at Cub Creek: A Homesteader Confronts Prior Appropriation	265
Wyoming v. Colorado : A "Watershed" Decision	267

IX: INFRASTRUCTURE

Introduction	273
--------------	-----

Forming the Environmental Citizen: Colorado's Early Legal Efforts at Protecting Outdoor Recreation	277
Rocky Mountain Riches: Law and the Extraction of Colorado's Mineral Wealth	281
Vision Quest: Coal and Culture in Colorado's Native Lands	285
The Original "Sod Squad": Dry Lawns, Dirty Cars, and the Legality of Water Restrictions in the 1950s	289
The Skyline Project: Urban Renewal and the Demolition of Old Denver	293
Fear and Desire for Steetcars: Denver's Early Electric Railway Wars	297
Cooking With Gas: John Koll Takes a Stand	303
Driven to Distraction: Some Tragic Accidents from a Pre-Automotive Age	313
From the Outhouse to the Courthouse: Keeping a Privy Private	323

X: NIGHTMARES AND TRAGEDIES

Introduction	333
Consequential Damages That Decomposed on Appeal: A Mortifying Experience	337
Healer or Slayer? A Case of Cyanide Poisoning	343
Death on the Kansas Pacific Railroad: A German Family's Fate	357
Conservative Measures: Three Early Colorado Medical Malpractice Cases	369
Sabotage and Wrongful Death: The Fountain Train Disaster	387

XI: THE BUSINESS OF NEWS

Introduction	401
Libel, Contempt, and the Republican Publishing Company	405

XII: DISORDER IN THE COURTS

The Long, Strange Flight of George Irving Norman, Jr.	419
Early Colorado Justice and the Straying Jury	429
Modern-Day Minutemen: The Colorado Bar and Legal Reform in Cold War Colorado	441
Rock and Roll's T.R.O.: The Family Dog and Detective Gray	445